PSALM 114 - Harvest (Frost)

1. When Is - rael went where E - gypt could not reach
 2. The waves rolled back, the sea fled at the sight,
 3. Why was it that you ran a - way, O sea?
 4. Be - fore the Lord, O earth, trem - ble in fear,

and Ja - cob's house fled peo - ple of strange speech,
 the Jor - dan turned its wa - ters back in fright;
 3. Though O Jor - dan, why did you turn back and as when the God of Ja - cob once drew near the earth in ter - ror trem - bled.

 dread came on all — cre - a - tion.
 Why all this con - ster - na - tion?
 on Ho - reb's ho - ly moun - tain.

God's sanct - u - ar - y Ju - dah then be - came,
 The moun - tains quaked and you skipped like fright - ened rams;
 Why, moun - tains, did you in skip like fright - ened rams?
 He turned the rock in - to a spark - ling stream;

and Is - ra - el he chose as his do - main;
 the hills jumped up and shook like shiv - ering lambs
 And hills, what made you shake like shiv - ering lambs
 the gran - ite cliffs he made with cas - cades gleam

their en - e - mies — he hum - bled
 in fear and con - ster - na - tion.
 with fear and and trep - i - da - tion?
