

When Israel Went Where Egypt Could Not Reach

PSALM 114 - Minneapolis

Major

C G/B Am C G

1. When Is - rael went where E - gypt could not reach
 2. The waves rolled back, the sea fled at the sight,
 3. Why was it that you ran a - way, O sea?
 4. Be - fore the Lord, O earth, trem - ble in fear,

C G/B Am E

and Ja - cob's house fled peo - ple of strange speech,
 the Jor - dan turned its wa - ters back in fright;
 O Jor - dan, why did you turn back and flee?
 as when the God of Ja - cob once drew near

B \flat G

the earth in ter - ror trem - bled.
 dread came on all cre - a - tion.
 Why all this con - ster - na - tion?
 on Ho - reb's ho - ly moun - tain.

C G/B Am C G

God's sanct - u - ar - y Ju - dah then be - came,
 The moun - tains quaked and skipped like fright - ened - rams;
 Why, moun - tains, did you skip like fright - ened rams?
 He turned the rock in - to a spark - ling stream;

C G/B Am E

and Is - ra - el he chose as his do - main;
 the hills jumped up and shook like shiv - ering lambs
 And hills, what made you shake like shiv - ering lambs
 the gran - ite cliffs he made with cas - cades gleam

B \flat F G C Fine

their en - e - mies he hum - bled in fear and con - ster - na - tion.
 with fear and trep - i - da - tion?
 from new - born spring and foun - tain.

Tune: MINNEAPOLIS - Tim Nijenhuis, © 2019

Lyrics: 1972, Walter van der Kamp; rev. - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 10.10.7.D

www.genevantunes.com