

The Fool Says in His Heart, There Is No God

PSALM 14/53 - Lausanne Psalter

Major

G G/F# C/E G/D

1.The fool says in his heart, "There is no God."
 2.The Lord looks down from heav - en's ho - ly throne
 3.Will e - vil - do - ers nev - er un - der - stand?
 4.See how they trem - ble, how they cringe with fear,
 5.O Is - ra - el, you peo - ple of God's choice,

G/C D/B Am7 D G

They are cor - rupt, their hor - rid deeds they cher - ish;
 to see if an - y - one has un - der - stand - ing.
 As they would eat their bread, they are de - vour - ing
 for God is with the just in love un - bound - ed.
 that out of Zi - on might come your sal - va - tion!

G G/F# C/E A D

not one of them does good, while just men per - ish.
 Not one seeks God, but wick - ed - ness in - tend - ing,
 my help - less peo - ple. God they are ig - nor - ing;
 They wish to see the poor man's hope con - found - ed,
 When God re - stores the for - tunes of his na - tion,

Bm C D Em D/F# G D G

None calls up - on the Lord, none sings his laud
 the sons of men, to sin and e - vil prone,
 they do not pray, but e - vil they have planned
 but when he cries, how - ev - er loud they jeer,
 let Ja - cob sing and Is - ra - el re - joice

C D G

or fears his rod.
 his law dis - own.
 through - out the land.
 the Lord shall hear.
 with hap - py voice.

Tune: Lausanne, 1565 - Guillaume Franc; alt. - also suitable for Psalm 53; Arr: Tim Nijenhuis, © 2019

Lyrics: 1972, Walter van der Kamp; rev. - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 10.11.11.10.4

www.genevantunes.com