

The Spacious Heavens Declare

PSALM 19 - Genevan Psalter (altered)

Major

D7 G Em C D

1. The spa - cious heavens de - clare God's glo - ry eve - ry - where;
 2. God in the fir - ma - ment pitched for the sun a tent,
 3. God's law is sound and whole; it will re - vive the soul,
 6. O Lord, from wil - ful ways pre - serve me all my days:

C D D7 G

the skies pro - claim his might. The knowl - edge they dis - play the can - o - py of night. It's like a joy - ful groom for it new strength sup - plies. His tes - ti - mo - ny sure, the rule of sin pre - vent. Then I shall blame - less be,

Em C D C D

day ech - oes forth to day and night makes known to night.
 who from his brid - al room leaps forth with great de - light.
 trust - wor - thy ev - er - more, will make the sim - ple wise.
 from grave of - fenc - es free, and whol - ly in - no - cent.

Bm D G C D

They use no speech or word, yet eve - ry - where is heard
 Like one who runs a race with strong and ea - ger pace,
 His pre - cepts plain - ly show how right they are, and so
 Lord, hear me as I pray: let what my tongue may say

G Am7 D G Cmaj7 D

the voice of all cre - a - tion. The truth that it ex - pounds it speeds a - cross the heav - ens; the sun its path com - pletes, the heart they cheer and bright - en. The Lord's com - mand - ments pure and what my heart may pon - der be pleas - ing in your sight, through - out the world re - sounds and reach - es eve - ry na - tion.

G E A G A7 D

 and from its pierc - ing heat not an - y - thing is hid - den.
 shine forth with ra - diance clear and so the eyes en - light - en.
 Re - deem - er great in might, my Rock and my De - fend - er.

Tune: Guillaume Franc - Geneva, 1542; Tim Nijenhuis, © 2019

Lyrics: © 2007, William Helder

Meter: 6.6.6.D.6.6.7.D

www.genevantunes.com