

Deep In My Heart I Know the Voice

PSALM 36 - Genevan Psalter (altered)

Major

D Gmaj7(9)

D Gmaj7(9)

1. Deep in my heart I know the voice
2. O Lord, your faith - ful - ness and love
3. In your light we see light, O Lord;

B m7 F#m

that lures the wick - ed to his choice reach to the heights of heaven a - bove.
you are the fount from which is poured

G A 7sus4 D

of sin and self - de - lu - sion.
Your jus - tice lasts for - ev - er;
life boun - ti - ful and pre - cious.

D Gmaj7(9)

With - out all fear of God is he,
it is like moun - tains vast and steep;
Let not your car - ing love de - part

B m7 F#m

and blind - ed by — pla - cen - cy,
your judg - ments all are o - cean - deep.
from those who are of up - right heart;

Tune: Matthäus Greiter - Strasbourg, 1526 - also used for Psalm 36; Arr. Tim Nijenhuis, © 2013

Lyrics: 2009, William Helder - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 8.8.7.8.8.7.D

www.genevantunes.com

PSALM 36 - Genevan Psalter (alt.) - 2

G A 7sus4 D

he dreads no ret - ri - bu - tion.
Both man and beast you fa - vour.
for ev - er - more be gra - cious.

B m7 F#m G D

The words he speaks are wick - ed lies;
We in the shad - ow of your wings
O let me not by men of pride

B m7 F#m E A

he sneers at what is good and wise to be you, O Lord, down for or pushed a - side

F#m B m7 G D

in mal - ice un - re - lent - ing.
you will not let us per - ish.
and scorn - ful - ly mis - treat - ed.

A B m F#m A

In bed at night he plots de - ceit.
All whom you to your feasts in - vite
See how God vin - di - cates his own:

D B m G A

On crook - ed paths he sets his feet,
will drink from riv - ers of de - light.
there lie the wick - ed, o - ver - thrown

B m G A 7sus4 D

from e - vil not re - pent - ing.
Your pre - cious love we cher - ish.
and ut - ter - ly de - feat - ed!