

How Blest Is He Who Cares About the Poor

PSALM 41 - Solmusic

Minor

F m7 Eb2

1.How blest is he who cares a - bout the poor:
 2.I said, "O Lord, be mer - ci - ful to me;
 3.My en - e - mies, with ha - tred fierce and grim,
 4.But you, O Lord, be mer - ci - ful to me!

him will the Lord de - fend. In times of trou - ble God keeps him se - cure; heal me, for I have sinned." See how my en - e - mies ma - li - cious - ly all whis - per in dis - dain, "Some dead - ly sick - ness has its grip on him; Help me see jus - tice done. By this I know that you are pleased with me:

blest is he in the land. His en - e - mies de - mand his life in vain, wait for my life to end. Who - ev - er vis - its me is not sin - cere, he will not rise a - gain." One of my dear - est friends, who had my trust, My hat - ers have not won. I will for - ev - er in your pres - ence dwell, though he be near death's door. God will sus - tain him on his bed of pain for in his spite - filled heart he spins false tales, for eve - ry - one to hear with whom I shared my bread, lifts up his heel a - gainst me, like the rest, by you up - held a - gain. Blest be the Lord, the God of Is - ra - el, and him to health re - store. and him to health re - store.

 as soon as he de - parts. as soon as he de - parts.
 and wish - es I were dead. and wish - es I were dead.
 from age to age! A - men. from age to age! A - men.
