

Hear My Complaint, O God, and Hear Me

PSALM 64 - Ninehouse

Major

G C/G F/G G

1. Heed my com - plaint, O God, and hear me.
 2. Their tongues the sharp - est swords re - sem - ble;
 3. They hatch their schemes for my de - struc - tion
 4. But God will shoot them with his ar - row,
 5. Then all will fear our great de - fend - er;
 6. Come, praise the Lord for his sal - va - tion!

Em C/E D/E Em

Save me from all dart my en - e - mies;
 a dead - ly all is ev - e - ery - word
 and cun - ning - ly con - ceal - their snare.
 and their own tongues will y - bring them shame.
 they will God's might - y deeds pro - claim
 Let all the just in him de - light;

C Am F B

hide me from their con - spir - a - cies,
 as bold - ly, by no fear de - terred,
 "No one will see it," they de - clare
 Man - y will shake their heads at them;
 and, prais - ing his ex - alt - ed name,
 let them seek ref - uge in his might

G C/G F/G G

from they nois - y mobs that make me wea - ry.
 they strike the blame - less and the hum - ble
 with their smug - gles - sat - is - fac - tion
 their down - fall will be quick and thor - ough,
 will stand in awe as they all pon - der
 and thank him for their pres - er - va - tion

C D Em

O God, be near me!
 to make them stum - ble.
 boast of their ac - tion.
 much to their sor - row.
 his works of won - der.
 with ju - bi - la - tion.
