

Zion, O God, in You Rejoices

PSALM 65 - Genevan Psalter (altered)

Aeolian

Em D7 Cmaj7 Bm7 Em

1. Zi - on, O God, in you re - joic - es and greets you with her songs;
2. When we are grieved by our trans-gres-sions and o - ver-whelmed by sins,
3. O God, you in your hab - i - ta - tion will all your saints pro - vide
4. You are the hope of dis - tant na - tions, you by your strength and power
5. O God, you show the earth your fa - vour, the boun - ty of your hand,
6. You crown the year, O Fount of bless - ing, with gifts to cheer the land;

your courts re - sound with cheer - ful voic - es. All praise to you be - longs!
you blot them out in your com - pas - sion and give us peace a - gain.
with ev - ery bless - ing of sal - va - tion till all are sat - is - fied.
placed moun - tains on their firm foun - da - tions and stilled the o - cean's roar.
for filled with wa - ter is your riv - er, en - rich - ing all the land.
your good - ness fills the earth, ex - press - ing the won - ders of your hand.

To you who hear our sup - pli - ca - tion we come to pay our vow.
How blest are those whom you have cho - sen whom you in love em - brace;
By awe - some deeds, so just and might - y, you save us from our foe;
Those who make far - off lands their dwell - ing all trem - ble at the sight;
You sof - ten fur - rows with your show - ers and bless the sprout - ing grain.
The hills re - joice. The mead - ows teem - ing with flocks that skip and spring,

All peo - ple will in ad - o - ra - tion be - fore you hum - bly bow.
with - in your courts, in you re - pos - ing, they have a dwell - ing place.
to those who walk with you up - right - ly your jus - tice you will show.
both dawn and dusk, in praise ex - cel - ling, with joy ac - claim your might.
How great, O God, your love and pow - er through - out all your do - main!
the gold - en grain, in val - leys gleam - ing they shout for joy and sing!
