

Let All the Earth With Loud Rejoicing

PSALM 66 (1-4) - St. Clement

Major

G D Am7 C/D

1. Let all the earth with loud re-joic-ing the Let all then say, "How awe-in-spir-ing are
 2. "All peo-ples, bow-ing down be-fore you, sing
 O come and see with rev-erent won-der the
 3. His strength to Is-ra-el re-veal-ing, he
 We sang his praise, in him re-joic-ing who
 4. Come, bless our God with joy-ful voic-es. All Your peo-ple you, O God, have test-ed as great-ness of our God ac-claim. With shouts of praise let all your works, how great your power; be-fore your strength, O prais-es to your glo-rious name; to you, O God, they awe-some deeds that God has done, his might-y works a-turned the sea to ar-id land. When they on foot passed by his might rules with-out end; his eyes keep watch on na-tions, let his praise re-sound, for he has kept our ore is in the fur-nace tried; we in the fire of

G Em7 A7 D G D

Am7 C/D G/B D Em Am/C D7 G

all a-dore him, sing to the glo-ry of his name.
 God Al-might-y, your en-e-mies all cringe and cower.
 all pay hom-age, with hymns of joy de-clare your fame."
 mong the na-tions, the vic-to-ries his hand has won.
 through the riv-er, the wa-ters heed-ed his com-mand.
 eve-ry na-tion. Let re-bels not his power with-stand.
 feet from stum-bling; in him we have a ref-uge found.
 your re-fin-ing have been, like sil-ver, pu-ri-fied.

Tune: ST. CLEMENT - Clement C. Scholefield, 1874; Arr. Tim Nijenhuis, © 2019

Lyrics: © 1980/2007, William Helder

Meter: 9.8.9.8

www.genevantunes.com