

We, O God, Will Sing Your Praise

PSALM 75 - Stabat Mater (Mainz)

Ionian

F

1. We, O God, will sing your praise
 2. "When the prop - er time draws near,
 3. "To those filled with pride I say,
 4. Help - ers will not from the east
 5. From the chal - ice in his hand
 6. As for me, my praise I shout;

and our thank - ful - ness pro - claim
 I my judg - ment will re - veal.
 'Let me no more hear your boast.
 and not from the west ap - pear
 God him - self pours out his wrath,
 I give thanks to Ja - cob's God.

Bb C C/E F

Near us is your ho - ly name; just and glo - rious
 Then the earth may shake and reel
 I tell them and all their host to ex - alt and to re - vere him whom sake head - y wine that foams with froth. All the wick - ed Him - I will for - ev - er laud; I will let my are your ways. Peo - ple praise you eve - ry - where quake with fear, but its pil - lars I up - hold,

 wick - ed way: 'Do not proud - ly lift your horn;
 last and least. He, the Judge of great re - nown,
 in the land this most bit - ter cup of pain
 joy ring out. All the wick - ed I will scorn, and your won - drous works de - clare.

 I who fash - ioned it of old.
 nei - ther speak with haugh - ty scorn."
 will lift up and will bring down.
 to the ver - y dregs must drain.
 but God will ex - alt our horn.
