

O Lord, Our Lord, Yours Be All Adoration

PSALM 8 - Genevan Psalter (altered)

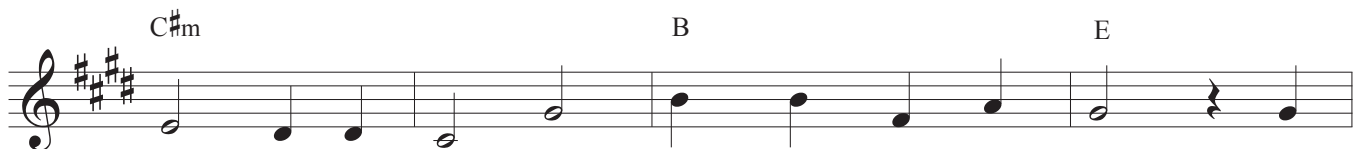

Minor

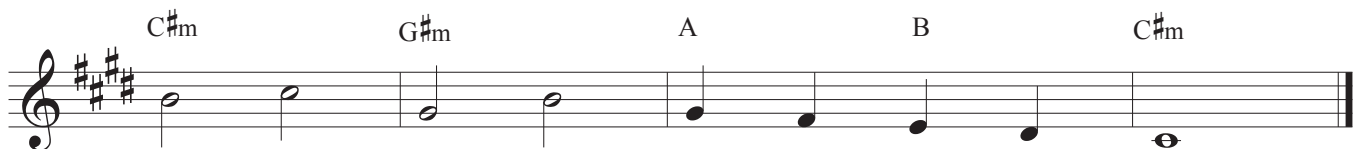

1. O LORD, our Lord, yours be all ad - o - ra - tion.
 2. From chil - dren's lips, you let your praise be sound - ed,
 3. Lord, when my gaze up - on the heav - ens lin - gers,
 4. You lit - tle low - er than di - vine have made him,
 5. You have ap - point - ed him as lord and mas - ter

How glo - rious is your name in all cre - a - tion!
 and on this praise a for - tress you have found - ed:
 on moon and stars, the work of your own fin - gers,
 and so with glo - rious hon - our have ar - rayed him.
 of bird and beast in for - est, field, and pas - ture;

You have dis - played your maj - es - ty on high; your our lit - tle ones your strength and glo - ry show; through O what is man that you should think of him, the All things you gave to him as his do - main, that of all the fish and crea - tures of the sea. O

glo - ry reach - es far a - bove the sky.
 them - you si - lence the a - veng - ing foe.
 son of man that you should care for him?
 o - ver your cre - a - tion he might reign.
 Lord, how great is your name's maj - es - ty!

Tune: Geneva, 1542, 1551 - also used for Psalm 144; Arr. Tim Nijenhuis. © 2019

Lyrics: 2009, William Helder, w. William W. J. vanOene, 1972, - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 11.11.10.10

www.genevantunes.com