

O Lord, Our Lord, Yours Be All Adoration

PSALM 8 - Liedboek van die Kerke

Major

1. O LORD, our Lord, yours be all ad - o - ra - tion.
2. From chil - dren's lips you let your praise be sound - ed,
3. Lord, when my gaze up - on the heav - ens lin - gers,
4. You lit - tle low - er than di - vine have made him,
5. You have ap - pointed him as lord and mas - ter

How glo - rious is your name in all cre - a - tion!
and on this praise a for - tress you have found - ed:
on moon and stars, the work of your own fin - gers,
and so with glo - rious hon - our have ar - rayed him.
of bird and beast in for - est, field, and pas - ture;

You have dis - played your maj - es - ty on high;
our lit - tle ones your strength and glo - ry show;
O what is man that you should think of him,
All things you gave to him as his do - main,
of all the fish and crea - tures of the sea.

your glo - ry reach - es far a - bove the sky.
through them you si - lence the a - veng - ing foe.
the son of man that you should care for him?
that o - ver your great cre - a - tion he might reign.
O Lord, how great is your name's maj - es - ty!

Tune: Sj. de Villiers, 1937 - Liedboek van die Kerke (S. Africa)

Lyrics: 2009, William Helder, w. William W. J. vanOene, 1972, - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 11.11.10.10

www.genevantunes.com