

O Lord, Our Lord, Yours Be All Adoration

PSALM 8 - Solmusic

Major

F B \flat C

1.O LORD, our Lord, yours be all ad - o - ra - tion.
 2.From chil - dren's lips you let your praise be sound - ed,
 4.You lit - tle low - er than di - vine have made him,
 5.You have ap - point - ed him as lord and mas - ter

F B \flat C

How glo - rious is your name in all — cre - a - tion!
 and on this praise a for - tress you have found - ed:
 and so with glo - rious hon - our have ar - rayed — him.
 of bird and beast in for - est, field, and pas - ture;

B \flat C C/E C7 F Dm

You have dis - played your maj - es - ty on high;
 our lit - tle ones your strength and glo - ry show;
 All things you gave to him as his do - main,
 of all the fish and crea - tures of the sea.

Gm Gm/B \flat Csus

Last time to Coda 1, 3, 4.
C

your glo - ry reach - es far a - bove the sky.
 through them you si - lence the a - veng - ing foe.
 that o - ver your cre - a - tion he — might reign.
 O Lord, how great is your name's maj - es - ty!

2.
C Dm A7/C \sharp

3.Lord, when my gaze up - on the heav - ens lin - gers,

Tune: Jamie Soles, © 2018

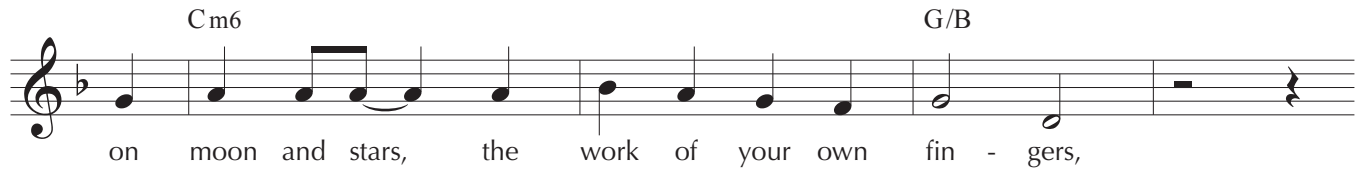

Lyrics: 2009, William Helder, w. William W. J. vanOene, 1972, - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 11.11.10.10

www.genevantunes.com

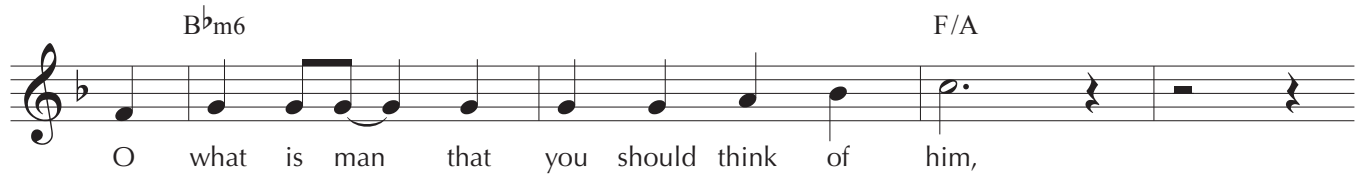

PSALM 0 - Template - 2

Cm6 G/B

on moon and stars, the work of your own fin - gers,

Bbm6 F/A

O what is man that you should think of him,

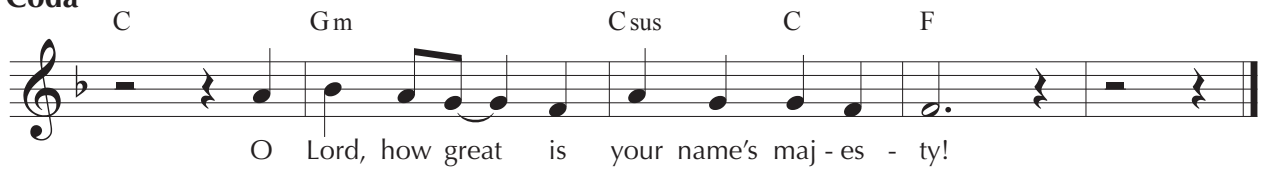

Gm Csus C D.C. al Coda

the son of man that you should care for him? 4.You

♩ Coda

C Gm Csus C F

O Lord, how great is your name's maj - es - ty!