

The Lord Is King, Enrobed in Majesty

PSALM 93 - Morecambe

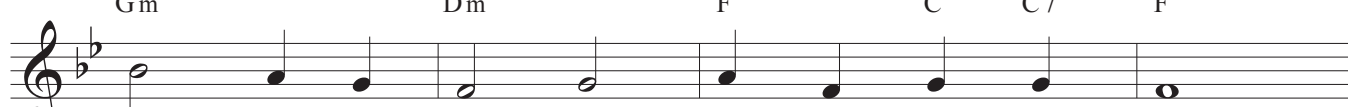

Major

B \flat E \flat /G B \flat F9 A $^{\circ}$ B \flat

1. The Lord is King, en-robbed in maj-es-ty;
 2. Firm from of old has stood, O Lord, your throne;
 3. But might-y though the thun-dering floods may be;
 4. Your word stands firm, in your de-crees we trust;

Gm Dm F C C7 F

he girds him-self with strength and eq-ui-ty.
 from ev-er-last-ing you are God a-lone.
 more might-y than the break-ers of the sea just,
 your stat-utes are de-pend-a-ble and just,

F7/E \flat Dm7 Cm7 Cm7/G F7

There-fore the world, es-tab-lished by his hand,
 To you the seas have lift-ed up their voice,
 is he, the Lord, who sits en-throned on high,
 and ho-li-ness, O Lord whom we a-dore,

B \flat E \flat F F7/A B \flat

can-not be moved but shall for-ev-er stand.
 the pound-ing waves that in their strength re-joice.
 the King whose name we praise and glo-ri-fy.
 be-fits your house, now and for-ev-er more.

Tune: MORECAMBE - Frederick C. Atkinson 1870; Arr. Tim Nijenhuis, © 2020

Lyrics: 1972, Walter van der Kamp; rev. - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 10.10.D

www.genevantunes.com