

The Lord Is King, Enrobed in Majesty

PSALM 93 - Sine Nomine

Major

G D/F# C/E D G

1. The Lord is King, en- robed in maj - es - ty;
 2. Firm from of old has stood, O Lord, your throne;
 3. But might - y though the thun - dering floods may be,
 4. Your word stands firm, in your de - crees we trust;

D D/A G A D

he girds him - self with strength and eq - ui - ty.
 from ev - er - last - ing you are God a - lone.
 more might - y than the break - ers of the sea
 your stat - utes are de - pend - a - ble and just,

G Em D Bm C Am/C# D

There - fore the world, es - tab - lished by his hand,
 To you the seas have lift - ed up their voice,
 is he, the Lord, who sits en - throned on high,
 and ho - li - ness, O Lord whom we a - dore,

G/B C G Em Am C D7 G

can - not be moved but shall for - ev - er stand.
 the pound - ing waves that in their strength re - joice.
 the King whose name we praise and glo - ri - fy.
 be - fits your house, now and for ev - er - more.

Tune: SINE NOMINE - Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906; Arr. Tim Nijenhuis, © 2011

Lyrics: 1972, Walter van der Kamp; rev. - © 2009, Standing Committee of the Book of Praise

Meter: 10.10.D

www.genevantunes.com